

8 Things to Know About KEN GREEN

All my life, I've wanted to be a musician. As a kid I "conducted" orchestras in my bedroom. That's how much music has always meant to me!

In the 1960's, I co-founded the Ken Kenny Singers. We played clubs and coffee houses all around Southern California. Eventually we were picked up to open at the Santa Monica Civic as part of the nation-wide tour of a major national TV show.

The music I play includes jazz, standards, original songs, R&B, Rock 'n' Roll, Country and more. I love music from all genres and like finding creative ways to incorporate new tunes into my performances.

The question I'm most asked is, "What is Head Slap music?" Simply, it's your favorite songs, the ones you used to love but might have forgotten about. They're right on tip of your tongue, when all of a sudden you hear the melody. It makes you slap your head and say, "I remember that song!"

My performances are very interactive. I like to engage the audience and make them part of the show!

Every song has a story and I love sharing true-life "musical notes" with the audience -- funny or amazing stories about the song or the artist who wrote it.

I'm constantly inspired and amazed that I am fortunate enough to be able to do what I love and make a living at it.

I told my dad, "When I grow up, I want to be a musician." My dad said, "Well decide, because you can't do both." Stop by a show sometime to see how it all worked out!
